Powerful Images Drive Traffic & Success

When your business is industrial and the competitive landscape is filled with larger, more recognizable brands how do you capture attention and spark interest at an all-important trade show? As the saying goes, a picture is worth a thousand words. What's an even better solution? How about a captivating video, showcasing your brand in action? Now you're talking.

As an innovative and forward-thinking company, Arc Designs delivers arc welding engineering expertise and solutions world-wide. Their rich and proven history in quality fabrication and building manufacturing made video the perfect solution to capture attention and showcase the polished, professional Arc brand. Through the use of creative video and animation, 2020 Exhibits multimedia designers bring the power and performance of ARC Designs to life. Artfully capturing the brand's culture and expertise, the video focused on Arc's three key brand planks: 1) Industry Experience and Expertise; 2) Broad Range of Services and 3) Proven, Personalized Service. Clients and prospects see proof of Arc's performance and can better visualize their extensive capabilities, in action.

Responsive & Personalized Service

Proven Experience

14 years of Custom Fabrication
for the Oil & Gas Industry

In a sea of exhibits, next to many much larger competitors, Arc met their objectives and pulled in more leads than ever before. New projects, year-over-year, are up over 30% as a result of the new leads obtained from the show. With two new partner relationships established as a result of the show, Arc attributes this success to their professional presence and polished presentation which showcased additional product and services, previously unknown to their audience.
